Dear Diary,

We are all excited as we await the arrival of the train that is New York bound.

After buying our tickets from a former classmate BOB HUTCHESON, we heard the familiar voice of JIM DICKERHOFF, dispatcher, announcing the departure of our train in five minutes.

We hurried over to the magazine stand and surprisingly MAURINE HELD and TINA BONHAM were the salesgirls. We had but two minutes, so we decided to summon a redcap. Who should it be but another former classmate, JIM BOSO. We said a quick hello and hurried off to buy a cushion for the trip from the depot cushion seller, BLANCHE HARRIS.

As we waited our turn to board the train, TED MALENOCK, the engineer, waved a cheery hello. We quickly glanced around the depot before our departure and saw Mr. and Mrs. TOM DUSTMAN, nee LOUISE EDMISTON, returning from their second honeymoon.

We no sooner got settled on the train than the conductor, TED MATSON, asked for our tickets. Deciding we wanted a snack before turning in, we went to the milk bar where three distinguished men, DON BELTZ, FRANK CHRISTIAN and ED HOWARD were sitting. We continued to look around and heard the "chit chat" of a group of women; still leading the conversation was our old friend ADELAIDE HARTMAN. Following close by with their gossip were KATHY RIPPLE, CAROL CUTLIP, LIZ DAVIDSON and VELMA BROWN. We left them still talking and sat down by the T.V. to see what we could tune in. As we started to switch channels, a baseball game caught our eye. We noticed BOB POPE was pitching the ball to the ambitious looking JERRY REED who was trying to score for his team. Turning to another channel we saw JOYCE POVLACS, ESTHER REED, JUDY NELSON, STEVE TAYLOR and JERRY CRISLIP engaged in an educational debate on world affairs. On the third channel, we saw an interesting talent show consisting of vocalists MARLENE THOMAS LARGE and DONARD ENGLE, pianist PAT RAMSEY and comedian NELSON WALLACE. In between acts with his tricky commercials was JACK GRIFFEN.

Well, we decided it was time to turn in, so we headed back to our berths and soon were dreaming of the many thrills that New York was to bring us.

We woke with a start the next morning to find the three little Woods running up and down the aisle. As BEVERLY JODON WOOD, would catch one, another would escape. Passengers NANCY PALMER, JOANNE DETWILER, LESTER HOLLOWAY, RICHARD MOHLER, JANET SEYMOUR, FRANK ANDRICK, BOB HUBICK and DEAN KITCHEN were unsuccessfully trying to help her. The commotion was finally ended when the little ones became winded.

As we neared our destination, the tall buildings of New York came into sight.

We were driving down the big streets of New York in a sight-seeing bus with LLOYD BITTINGER as our driver. As we looked around, we saw many old friends whom we hadn't seen in ages: BOB REARICK, BARBARA FLINT, GENE DACK, CAROL GILLEY, MAYNARD NICKOLSON, DARLENE HONE, GERALD HOOVER and JUNE MAGNUS. We were still riding along seeing the sights when we were held up by a traffic jam. We had to laugh when we saw HUGH POUNDERS giving JEANETTE SICKLE a traffic ticket. We looked again and there were SANDY WYATT, JOANNE and JEAN KELLEY and CHONITA PERKINS in the car too, all embarrassed as a result of the incident.

A few minutes later the bus pulled to the curb and the driver announced we had bus trouble. We decided to go on by ourselves. We walked into the fabulous Macy's Department Store where they were having a style show in the tea room. The latest fashions were being described by the guest designer, NORMA JONES. The graceful models were JACQUELINE KINNEY, JOYCE CHENOWETH, and GRACE ROGISH. Serving as the hostesses were KATHY McGLYNN and CAROL PLATT.

After the show, we attended a radio broadcast. As we passed the president's office, there was JIM HUMISTON sitting behind the desk with PAT MIKALOFF taking dictation. As we went down the corridor and approached the auditorium, two ushers, ELBERT WADE and GARY WILLIAMS, showed us to our seats. Sitting only a few rows in front of us was DOTTY SMITH chatting with BARBARA PRESSLER, while BOB IVERSON and LYNN RIBLETT were looking over their programs.

Prophecy

This was a new experience for us and we were eager for the program, "Hello Tourist," to begin. Many different things were going on about us as the program was in session. In the control room we saw RONALD KENNEL and "WHITEY" WAUGAMAN giving signals to the master of ceremonies, JERRY HUFT, who was announcing the contestants, PAULINE COOPER, ERVIN DAVIS, NANCY BURNS and JIM MOBLEY.

Before we knew it, the show was over and we were ready for dinner. We took a subway back to JIM THARP'S HOTEL to change for the evening. We stopped at the desk to get our key from the hotel manager, AL MORGAN. It took us a few minutes to reach the elevator because of the Big Moose Convention that was being held there. We were shocked to see GARY BEAHN, TED RISINGER and HENRY ROBINSON as the top men at the convention. DIANE GOSHORN took us up on the elevator.

An hour later we managed to be on our way. As we entered The DARROW ZICKAFOOSE and ALVIN SHAFFER Restaurant, we were cordially served by MARTHA GOODSON, and while we dined, we enjoyed the dinner music played by HOMER BURKET. On our way out, we paid the cashier, CONNIE AUSTIN.

We made our way down the hustle-bustle of the evening, and were soon caught in a gathering that was being interviewed by the T.V. show, "Who Me?"

In front of the camera was JANICE CAIN, KENNY STEVENS, DELORES BURGHY, DARRO COTTLE, and SHIRLEY BEATTY. We noticed JACK CLIVER, as Cameraman. Among the crowd, waving to the T.V. audience was DAVID BLONDHEIM, SHIRLEY BUTLER, JIM BALLIS, JOANNE WERNER, DANNY ALLEN, and BETTY FERRELL.

CLARENCE BAKER and JANET SHACKLEFORD were waiting their turn to be interviewed.

We left the crowd and went to the exciting Copa Cabana where LAWRENCE BAKER, master of ceremonies, was announcing that famous singing group, DON FIELDS, GARNET BOYTER, BARBARA ANDRICK, BOB DILLON, MARCIA HARRIS. The next act of the evening was a ventriloquist, NANCY HOWELLS and her dummy. It was very amusing. Following was the sensational dance team of TOM SMART and ROSE GRIFFIN. After a brief intermission, DICK WALLACE entertained the audience with his magic. Next was the graceful acrobatic team of JUDY WAGGONER and PEGGY WHITESEL, and for the concluding performance, JOANNE JOHNSON had them "rolling in the aisles."

Leaving for our hotel, we ran into RONNIE JOHNSON and NANCY HENRY who invited us to a party they were having in their penthouse. We were thrilled as they told us many of the guests invited were some of our old school chums. BETTY PETIT greeted us at the door and led us into the room where we reminisced with ROBERTA SUMMERFORD, RAYMOND SMITH, BILL HERSHBERGER, FAYE ANDERSON, JOANNE BROWN, BARB COFFMAN, BOB IVERSON, and HAROLD KERR. In the midst of all the guests was NANCY PAULL taking pictures for the society paper.

As time passed, we noticed more of our friends gathered around the punch bowl. Among them were; DALLAS FROCK, ROGER GAMBLE, ANN IGLEHEART, MARGARET KEITH, LOWELL GRANT, LARRY HARRIS, GERALD HOOVER, and JEANETTE BRADLEY. To the side of the room rehearsing their song were ROGER LA TAMPA, NORMAN GILBERT, ALLEN WADE, PAUL REEDER, JIM SHERLOCK, JOHN CREEKMORE, along with BARB DOUGLAS at the piano.

As we were leaving, we saw CAROL EWING and BARB NICKELL hailing a taxi.

The next morning was a beautiful sunny day, perfect for attending Church, and such a nice way to end our trip.

As we entered the big wide doors, SYLVIA BROWN and HELEN BETZING welcomed us. Soon we were seated and BARBARA KELLY, choir director, announced a special music group saluting Brotherhood Week. BETTY YEATER and DOTTY CRUTCHFIELD sang a duet, while BETTY BOWERS, organist, accompanied. After the fine music, DALE HAWN, minister, gave the congregation a most inspiring sermon.

We walked from the church with a wonderful feeling and many memories we would never forget from our trip to the exciting New York City!!

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Springfield High School has been a member of the National Honor Society for the past 16 years.

Each year a list is submitted to the faculty for consideration. 5% of the juniors and 15% of the seniors are chosen on the basis of character, leadership, and service. In addition, students must attain a scholastic average of 88%.

The officers for this year are: Judy Nelson, president; Carol Ewing, vice president; Janet Seymour, secretary; Kathleen Ripple, treasurer; Chonita Perkins, chaplain; and Don Beltz, usher.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Creating and promoting a feeling of good will between the teachers and students, and among the students themselves is the primary function of the council. Each grade has representatives on student council. Ed Howard is president; Bob Pope, vice president; Frank Andrick, secretary; and Steve Taylor, treasurer.

Senior Service Club

To create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character and Christian fellowship throughout the school and community is the purpose of this club. The president is Ed Howard; Bob Pope, vice president; Al Morgan, secretary; and Jerry Reed, treasurer.

Haromano

A scholastic average of 85% in five subjects and 87½% in four subjects is necessary for admittance into Haromano. High scholarship, good fellowship, and good, clean morals are encouraged by this club.

Esther Reed heads this group with Bette Viall as vice president; Betty Yeater, secretary; Valerie Douglas, assistant secretary; Joyce Chenoweth, treasurer; and Joyce Povlacs as chaplain.

Varsity S.

Student players and managers who have earned and received at least one varsity letter are members of Varsity S. President for this year is Steve Taylor; Homer Burket, vice president; Ted Malenock, secretary - treasurer.

G. A. A.

A spirit of sportsmanship and good fellowship is created by the Girls' Athletic Association along with an interest in athletics. Jeanette Sickie is president with Jacqueline Sue Kinney as vice president; Louise Burket, secretary; Joyce Cooper, treasurer.

Debate Club

Students from each of the four classes make up the Debate Club. They are organized into four negative and four affirmative teams, which meet teams from other schools to debate and discuss a topic selected by the Speech Association of America.

Dramatic Club

To further the interest of students in dramatics by providing members with the experience of both directing and acting is the purpose of the Dramatics Club. Janet Seymour is president; Norman Gilbert, vice president; Deanna Sewell, secretary; Lela McCaslin, treasurer; and Carol Ewing, recorder.

Thespians

To create a more active and intelligent interest in high school dramatics is the purpose of Thespians, which is a national society for high school dramatists.

Qualification for membership is based upon a point system.

Kappa Chi

Standing for "Christian Fellowship," Kappa Chi welcomes any student who wishes to belong to a club interested in clean, wholesome fellowship. Don Engle is president; David Hohlbaugh, vice president; Chonita Perkins, secretary; Jerry Cathey, treasurer; and Joan Snyder, social chairman.

Librarians

From the 2,750 books the library contains, approximately 600 are circulated weekly through the service of Miss Grace DeWitt and Mrs. Kathryn Wyre, librarians, and their assistants.

Junior Service Club

Clean speech, clean athletics, clean sportsmanship, and clean living are the standards set up for the freshman and sophomore boys who belong to this club. Phil Mondello is president with Ronnie Cottle, vice president; Gary Apitz, secretary-treasurer; and Roy Ray, chaplain.

Camera Club

An interest in photography is required to become a member of the Camera Club. Lynn Ribblett is president; Lester Holloway, vice president; Nina Ribblett, secretary; and Carolyn Horn, treasurer.

F. H. A.

Each girl in Future Homemakers of America is prepared for service to her country, community, and her family in the fields of food, clothing, home management, child care, and personal grooming. President of FHA is Pat Pursley, Jackie Kinney, vice president; Maurine Held, secretary; Norma Jones, treasurer; and Connie Dayton, historian.

Sprag

"To Boost and Support"

The Sprag is published monthly, keeping the students informed on school events as well as giving the journalism students a chance to attain experience in this field. The editor of the Sprag for 1955-56 is Joyce Povlacs. Kathleen Ripple serves as associate editor, while Mrs. Lucille Miller is the advisor. The staff is affiliated with Quill and Scroll, international honorary society for high school journalists.

F. T. A.

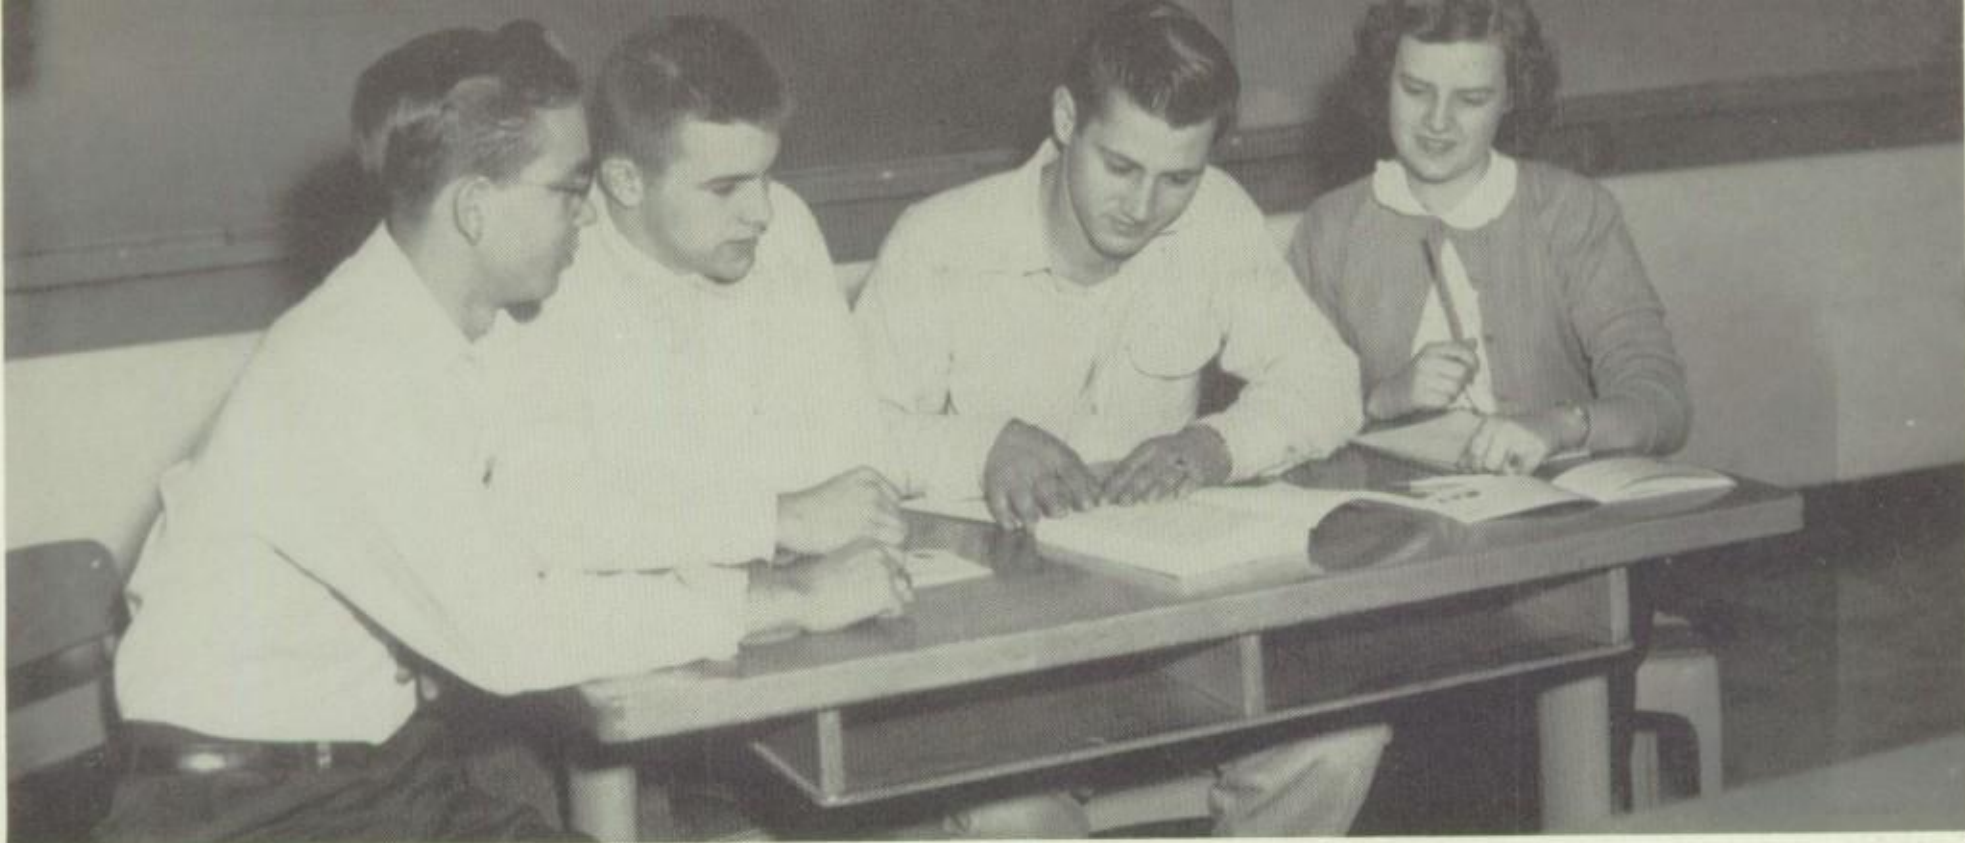

In 1948 the Future Teachers of America was organized at Springfield High School. Membership is open to all Sophomore, Junior, and Senior students who are interested in teaching as a career, or those who may still be undecided.

Each year the members of the club visit the grade schools in our district for one day each semester to observe classes. In this way they have an opportunity to ask questions, and to find out whether or not they like to work with children.

Kathleen Ripple is president of this group; Elizabeth Davidson, vice president; Barbara Nickell, secretary; Joanne Johnson, treasurer; and Pat Mikaloff is historian.

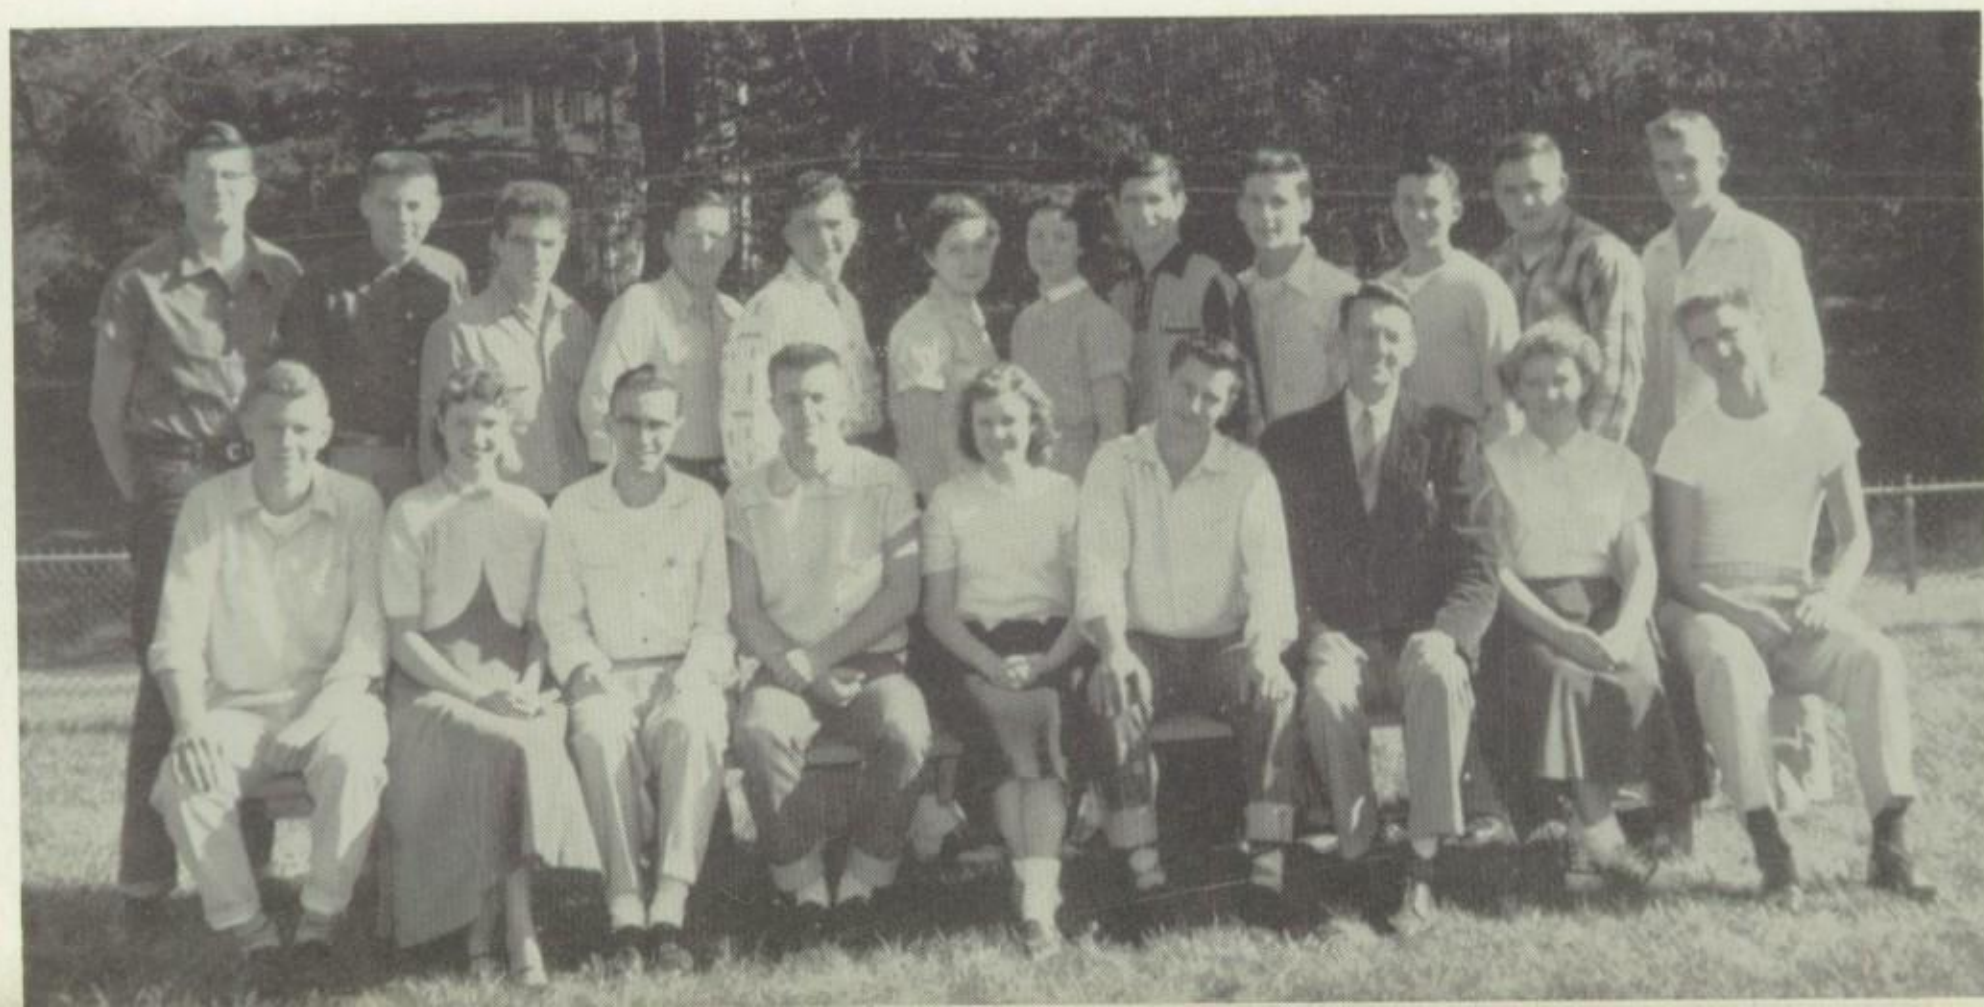

Co-op

The Co-op course is a training program in which business and schools cooperate to provide practical vocational instruction and experience for retail and wholesale jobs. This year-length course is open to all seniors who are at least 16 years of age.

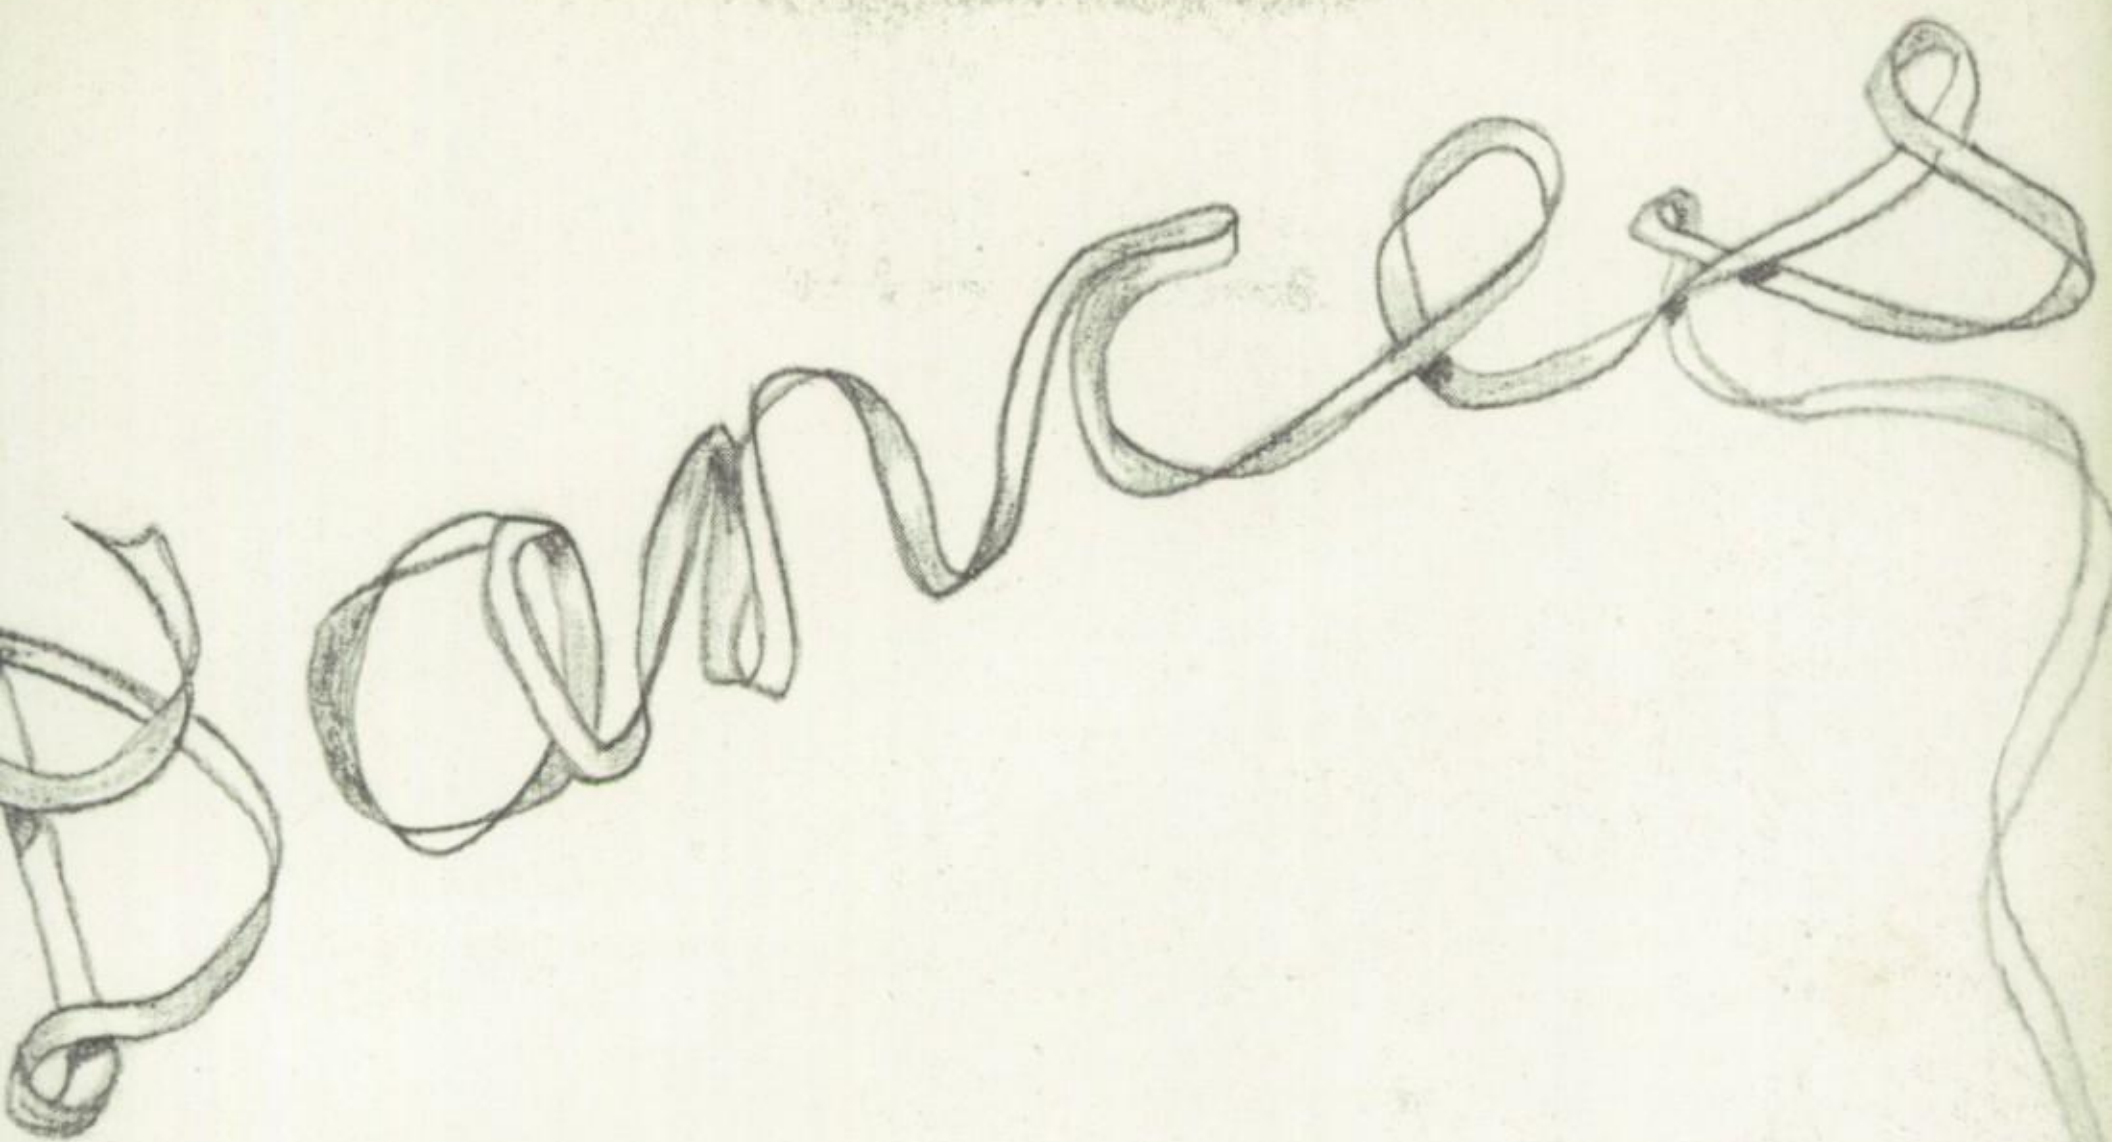

Each student must work at least 15 hours per week, while attending two classes in Sales and Merchandising per day, in addition to other required high school work.

This program is partially subsidized by the Federal Government under the George Deen Law.

Officers are: Roger LaTampa, president; Jim Mobley, vice president; Faye Anderson, secretary; and Lynn Ribblett, treasurer.

IS NOW IN ITS INFANCY!

Your art career is now in its infancy. We can develop its growth into a good paying, interesting career in advertising art. We offer a two year course in Commercial art, taught by professional artists. Our free placement service has started many of Akron's top artists on their way to success. Free talent tests available upon request.
